LEECH TRIAL WILL PROBABLY START MONDAY

Ten Jurors Already Secured, Night Sessions May Be Used to Get Others.

1. Robert L. Obeir, collector for Tuttle Paint and Glass company.
2. John A. Bradford, manager Western Construction company.
3. John E. Walker, office civil engineer for Southwestern system.
4. R. S. P. Cass, formerly clerk at Western Abstract company, and also employed in tax collector's office.
5. John F. Kilburn, cattleman, formerly from New Mexico.
6. J. W. Wilkey, contractor, living at 395 Wyoming street.
7. Albert Lancelos, 415 Myrtle avenue, turner for El Paso Sash and Door company.
8. W. E. Laird, 512 San Marcial, foreman for El Paso Lumber company.
9. F. N. Pogue, farmer, living near San Elitario.
10. E. C. Crapp, farmer, living near Clint.

The introduction of testimony in the trial of John Leech, charged in the 34th district court with the murder on June 17 last, of E. Kohlberg, will probably be commenced Monday morning before special judge Patrick H. Clarke, provided the jury is completed Saturday afternoon or night.
This statement was made Saturday morning by district attorney W. D.
Howe following the acceptance by the state and the defense of the ninth and tenth jurors in the case, F. N. Pogue and E. C. Crapp. That the jury of 12 men will be completed Saturday afternoon is considered probable.

May Hold Night Session.

Ten jurors for the trial had been selected at noon Saturday. F. N. Pogue, the 32nd man on the second venire, and E. C. Crapp, the 36th member of the venire, being accepted by the attorneys for the state and defense. Court was adjourned at noon until 1:30 o'clock.
A night session may be held in order to secure the two remaining jurors for the panel, in the event it is impossible to qualify them Saturday afternoon.

Owing to the fact that 10 jurymen have been secured, neither the state nor defense is hesitating over using peremptory challenges to disqualify a man not wanted on the panel. At noon Saturday, the state had used six of its 15 challenges and the defense used 10.

Among those excused Saturday morning were H. H. Richardson, by consent of the counsel; A. Carr, W. A.
Miller, B. A. Oden and Frank P. Frist, who stated they had opinions; B. M.
Morris and W. D. Landen on the score that they have scruples against the infliction of the death penalty; S. W.
Carr was excused on the sixth peremp-tory challenge of the state; D. S. Olney was excused on the ninth peremptory challenge of the defense, and G. W.
Geiger was excused on the 10th peremptory challenge of the defense.

Excused Friday.
At the Friday afternoon session of court, H. D. Camp was excused on the eighth peremptory challenge of the state.

Others on the venire who were excused Friday afternoon for various reasons, are G. C. White, J. B. Donahue and H. L. Mudd, all of whom said they had definite opinions relative to the case. W. E. Fisher, J. F. Eyster, J.
H. Simms, W. T. Young, C. W. Ballard, C. W. Brock, H. L. Edwards, A.
R. Remling, D. Y. Hadley, J. H. Nusbaum and James Buchanan were excused on the score of having scruples against the infliction of the death penalty. Albert Lowenstein, T. S. Newell, T. H. Ellis, H. J. Catlin and R. W.
Reed were excused by consent of the counsel for the state and defense. F.
F. Knight and R. G. Chenoweth were challenged and excused by the court for cause. P. O. Gardner was excused by the state's use of its fourth peremptory challenge, and Andrew Lund was excused by the state's fifth peremptory challenge. A. J. Rose was excused by the defense using its seventh peremptory challenge.

SUCH EXTREME WEAKNESS

As Miss Engler Tells About, Is Rare, But Relief Was Obtained by Means of Cardui.

Faribault, Minn.—"Let me tell you," writes Miss Myra Engler, "how much good Cardui has done me. As a young girl, I always had to suffer so much with all kinds of pains. Sometimes I was so weak that I could hardly stand on my feet. I got a bottle of Cardui at the druggist's, and as soon as I had taken a few doses, I began to feel better. Today I feel as well as anyone can."

Are you a woman?
Then you are subject to a large number of troubles and irregularities which are peculiar to women, leading, frequently, in time, to weakness and debility.

As a remedy for women's ills, it is safely reliable.
Fifty years' success is your guarantee.
A tonic to help you over the hard places, to relieve weakness, headache, and other unnecessary pains, the signs of nerve exhaustion and over-work.

Do you need a tonic?
Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. You will never regret it, for it will certainly help you.

As a tonic, it is always satisfactory.
Fifty years' success is your guarantee that Cardui will help you, as it has helped others.

RELIGIOUS ORDERS DRIVEN FROM LAND

Portuguese monarchs and her important commercial relations give her a position of pre-eminence.

It is understood that France regards the flight of Manuel from Portugal as the first great factor making possible the recognition of the republic, since the flight is considered a tacit admission that he abandoned the fight.
The intention here seems to be to await the certainty that the republic has been successfully founded.

Advices here lead to the belief that the people of Portugal are likely to adhere to the republic and that the nation will be spared the horrors of civil war.

MANUEL THINKS HE WILL BE RESTORED ON THRONE

Gibraltar, Oct. 8.—King Manuel, of Portugal, made his first known reference to the revolution today when he is reported to have said he had every confidence that he would return to Lisbon, as he declared most of the army and the bulk of the people are loyal at heart.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—A circular note sent simultaneously to all the powers by president Braga, announcing that he has been proclaimed president of Portugal, that the revolution has been successful and that he has appointed a cabinet, was received by the state department today. The United States has not replied to the note.

The state department will not commit itself by any form of communication until proof of the stability of the new government is forthcoming.

REPORT REPUBLICAN DEFEAT.

Augsburg, Germany, Oct. 8.—A dispatch from Lisbon, said to be of a clerical origin, says the republicans have been defeated in the northern districts of Portugal and that their movement is making no progress there.

DAMAGE CASE GOES TO JURY IN FEDERAL COURT

The case of Clarkson W. Collins, against the Southwestern Portland Cement company, was given to the jury at 11 o'clock Saturday morning and at 2:30 in the afternoon it had not reached an agreement. The attorneys in the case began their arguments Saturday morning when court convened.

In the afternoon a number of pleas of guilty were heard. William Bell pleaded guilty to the charge of having in his possession six cans of smoking opium and was fined $300.

BURGLAR CUTS THROAT OF RESTAURANT CASHIER

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 8.M. Rhein, cashier of a restaurant, was attacked by a burglar early this morning when he retrieved a revolver at the intruder who was making off with the cash register. The burglar dropped the register and slashed Rhein's throat. He then escaped. Rhein will recover.

Xenophon was personally conducting the retreat of the Ten Thousand.

"I'm going to show the sporting editors," he said, "that I can come back in good shape." He rubbed it in, too, afterward, by writing a most exasperating book about it.—Chicago Tribune.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is "angry, nervous, irritable and despondent," he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this no-
